All That Glitters! From the House of Greenlam Industries Ltd

Staturio by Greenlam Laminates from the house of Greenlam Industries Ltd. is an eccentric marble pattern laminate with a glossy finish. Glossy finishes reflect light and therefore add vibrancy to your interiors. During festivities, the best way to go about creating a cheerful environment is to play around with the textures on your walls and floors. Greenery, plants and succulents complement the interesting patterns in Staturio and add that much-needed character to your space. While they add natural air, these monochromatic shades add a touch of glamour to your room. One can experiment with small plants that are versatile and work in any setup whether it is your bathroom, kitchen, bedroom or living room. Noce Imperial
