season, get your creativity to new highs because the world is your platter.

Cheerful Greens : While earthy tones have a charm to them, this season allow yourself to relish the visions of festive treats by substituting these shades and shifting to a palette which evokes enchanting memories. Let the power of vivacious greens overcome your color scheme with matt textures that will give your home a trendy yet elegant ambience. With Greenlam Laminates VRB collection, matt textured Veracious Bark, you will be stumped with the choices you will have with this design!

Sleek simplicity : There is no doubt about the fact that Christmas brings a magical warmth to your home and it only makes sense for your interiors to emulate the same impression. Let's welcome festivities by giving priority to the things that matter the most and transform your home into a fiesta of bliss. This winter, how about you make your home glee with childlike joy by adding a touch of modern minimalism to your space!

With colors such as Frosty White, Lucent Pearly White and Alter White, the HPL & Compact collection by Greenlam Laminates is your perfect partner in making your house emanate a serene elegance. Add a definitive cabinet or a chest of drawers to make your interiors look unique and sophisticated. Match it up with a Christmas tree that has golden colored decoration in your living room. You can also add gold elements like a stunning table lamp or a spectacular showpiece to overall have a joyous aura in your home. To add some glamour, use various methods to decorate a tree by creating a silhouette of the Christmas tree using lights or traditional decorations on the wall. Not only will it save space but will also add a suave factor to your interiors.

In the end, the most important thing is creating a cheerful and festive mood with your loved ones the Christmas eve. With sweet little gifts cheering your home, let your spirit be your 'guiding star' as the possibilities are endless.

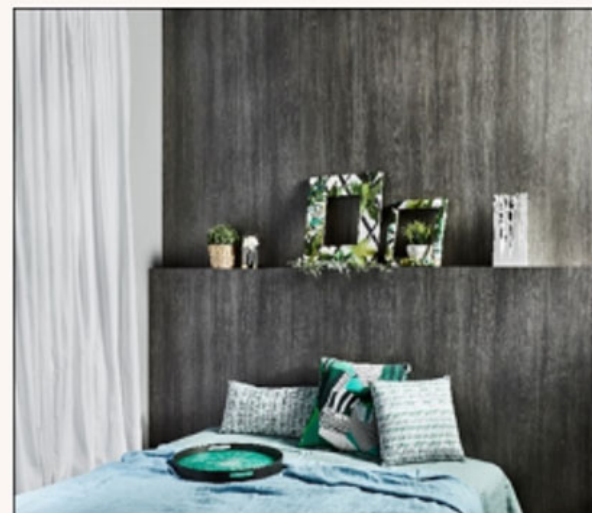

Christmas is the most spectacular time of the year where you are in the presence of your loved ones and wrapped in cozy blankets. Just like hot cocoa with marshmallows go with the cold winters, shades of red and green go with Christmas which calls for a rejig of your interiors. Amidst bright lights, warm sweaters, merriment all-around, this is the perfect time to transform your home into a wintry wonderland! Let's make the preparations top notch to welcome guests on this special occasion. Style that perfect living room, add a touch of festivity to your bedroom décor and get Christmas ready!

Upbeat twilight : If your home mainly consists of a dark theme, with dusky veneers and ebony elements, the best thing to do this Christmas would be to bring some statement pieces to your décor. Incorporating bright bursts of intense color to your furniture will make your décor stand out without upsetting the overall theme of your home. For instance, add pops of cheerful colors such as cherry red that look striking to the eye. Add a dash of red in an all-black because it works like a charm in the form of wall art or a bold red chair. Pair these statement pieces with classic Mikasa Noce Rosso floors to add a distinct jovial touch to it and watch your interiors come alive with exuberance! Another thing that looks stunning in a dark space are lights. Bright lights instantly catch your eye against shadowy shades. You can make a canopy around your bed and decorate it with gorgeous fairy lights to add that starry glitz to your room. So, this winter Go the traditional way and add some ageless wreaths to complement that effervescent green pastoral moment. The specialty of wreaths is they add that nature's touch to your space while maintaining the Christmas vibe to your home. Having said that, you can make them in your house according to what your heart desires! how about giving your children a surprise by creating a candy wreath? This winter season, experiment with Christmassy greens as it is one of the trendiest colors in the design scheme!
