

PICK OF THE WEEK

The feel of wood

The feel of wood

Engineered wooden floors are setting a new trend in the flooring material category. Check out the latest Oak Stein by Mikasa premium engineered wooden floors from the house of Greenlam Industries Ltd. With hints of beige, brown and green, kindle your space with boundless passion and make it your own refuge from the world.

Price: Rs 450 per sq. ft (approx.)

Awash with colour

If you are looking to infuse a new character to your bath space then look for this colourful vessel with refined faucet finish. KOHLER's new range of colours — Peacock Vessel — playing a timeless duet with the rich look of the Rose Gold faucet is all about re-inventing bathrooms with shades and strokes that are globally trending. This new range has colours and finishes to complement a modern bathroom design. Each has its own characteristics in terms of warmth or coolness, depth or opacity, texture and sheen.

Price: Rs 20,580

Taste of spiced honey

In a world that's full of strife and uncertainty, a sense of hope and optimism is vital to spark positive change. It is this sentiment that AkzoNobel (and makers of Dulux Paints in India) wish to convey with their Colour of the Year 2019 Spiced Honey, a warm amber tone. It is a contemporary colour, but more importantly, it is versatile. It can be paired with different hues and interior design styles to achieve varying effects from warm and energising to calm and nourishing. It provides energy and momentum with an invigorating combination of vivid red and green, pale pink and blue and crisp greys and whites."

Price: On request

Also in this section

Fitting grace

Shield your home from water woes

Infra push for realty